Read this honestly: eleven shots have a ten-second 720p concept clip generated from their anchors. None is the shot. Nothing has had a final pass, so the film exists as 39 stills and a rough animatic, not as a cut.

Cast, references, and what is left

Souls read live from the account. Elements counted against what the shot prompts attach.

Soul casts

all seven trained and ready – none missing

	SOUL	VERDICT	NOTE
✓	oriane	keep	Movement I and II
✓	alder	keep	Movement III
✓	wren	keep	Movement III
✓	caedom-ascended	keep	Movement I and S23
✓	caedom-before	keep	not used by the film
✓	caedom-mortal	DELETE	contaminated training set
✓	Caedom	DELETE	this is Oriane, misnamed

No Soul is missing. The Threadwright needs none — her face is never fully revealed by design — and the Keepers are an order, carried by an element rather than a face. One hard limit: a generation takes one Soul only, so the seven shots with two people in frame (S2, S3, S5, S15, S16, S17, S22) must run on elements, not Souls.

The Turned

consistency comes from the rule, not the faces

They are written to read as individuals who went wrong separately — no uniforms, no matching costume — so chasing per-face consistency fights the design. Three things must be identical in every Turned shot instead: the aura is black at the centre, the cloth is dark and sodden with no armour, and the rank reads off the aura. Attach one canonical group element everywhere (pick one of the three now in the project and retire the other two), plus aura-grammar so the hollow is decided once, plus the domain sheet only when that power is on screen. Elements take several references in one prompt, which is why this works and Souls cannot do it. Never describe a Turned face in words.

What is left

Ordered by what it blocks, not by when it was thought of.

All twenty-two already exist in the account. This is a move, not a rebuild.

What is left, in order

ordered by what it blocks

- 01 Move 22 references into the project folder. Four lighting plates first — between them they carry 21 of 23 shots.
- 02 Rename the four elements carrying novel vocabulary. Production history is public. Cairn Island, the Vigil.
- 03 Replace prop_leviathan_v1. It holds a video and no still, so it cannot be an image reference.
- 04 Hold Gate A — identity lock. Gates 17 of the 20 remaining steps.
- 05 Verify the six upload-backed handles. No real face as input. The only disqualification risk.
- 06 Re-assign 16 shots off models that cannot do 2.39:1. The motion sheet carries the replacement for each.
- 07 Generate the 12 shots with no clip at all. S3 S4 S5 S9 S13 S14 S15 S16 S17 S21 S22 S23.
- 08 Cast three voices. Oriane is Kiki. Caedom, Alder and Wren are not cast.
- 09 Final pass, all 23. Then deflicker, upscale, grade — in that order.
- 10 File 87 generations, publish, check it logged out.
